Step 3: Reflection

The OBA CPD Registration Standard requires optometrists to evaluate and reflect on their learnings and notate how it is expected to improve patient outcomes. Reflective practice is well established as a tool to support continual learning.

Reflective practice simply requires you to think about how a CPD activity meets your learning needs, and how the 'take-home' messages or practical skills gained can be used to improve day-to-day professional practice.

The OBA's advice on 'Reflecting on your continuing professional development' is accessible via:
